

TURKIYE & SYRIA EARTHQUAKES, THE AFTERMATH

Ashraful Aid teams responded quickly to the devastating earthquake near Kahramanmaraş, Turkey on February 6th, 2023. Our teams visited Gaziantep, Killis, Islahiye, and Kahramanmaraş to assess the situation and provide aid.

Our Director, Suhail Wadee emphasizes the need for funding to purchase aid for families who have lost loved ones and for the thousands of displaced people due to building damage. Victims are currently being housed in tents provided by the Turkish disaster response agency, AFDA.

DISASTER RELIEF - FLOODS

With the recent heavy rains, certain areas are prone to flooding. Ashraful Aid Teams spread out to many affected areas providing assistance and support to those affected by the Floods.

In Standerton, a group of people had lost their homes and while taking shelter at a nearby hall they were hit by load shedding. Leaving them in complete darkness with no way to get food. Ashraful Aid's responding team sourced hot meals and assisted them.

In the mean time in Waterworks, just past Lenasia another response team provided hygiene packs, blankets and more for victims of flooding in that area.
